

Policy for usage of Social Media & Digital Platforms

Date: June 05, 2020	Prepared By:	Approved By:
Revision: 01	Head – AFC & IT	Chairman & Managing Director

Objective of this Document

PVPL recognizes that technology provides unique opportunities to build our business, listen, learn and engage with customer, channel partners and employees through the use of a wide variety of digital platforms and Social Media. However, how we use these platforms and Social Media and what we say also has the potential to affect on PVPL's reputation and/or expose the Company (and each of us) to business or legal risk. Therefore, every employee has a personal responsibility to be familiar with and comply with PVPL's policies on the usage of digital platforms and Social Media.

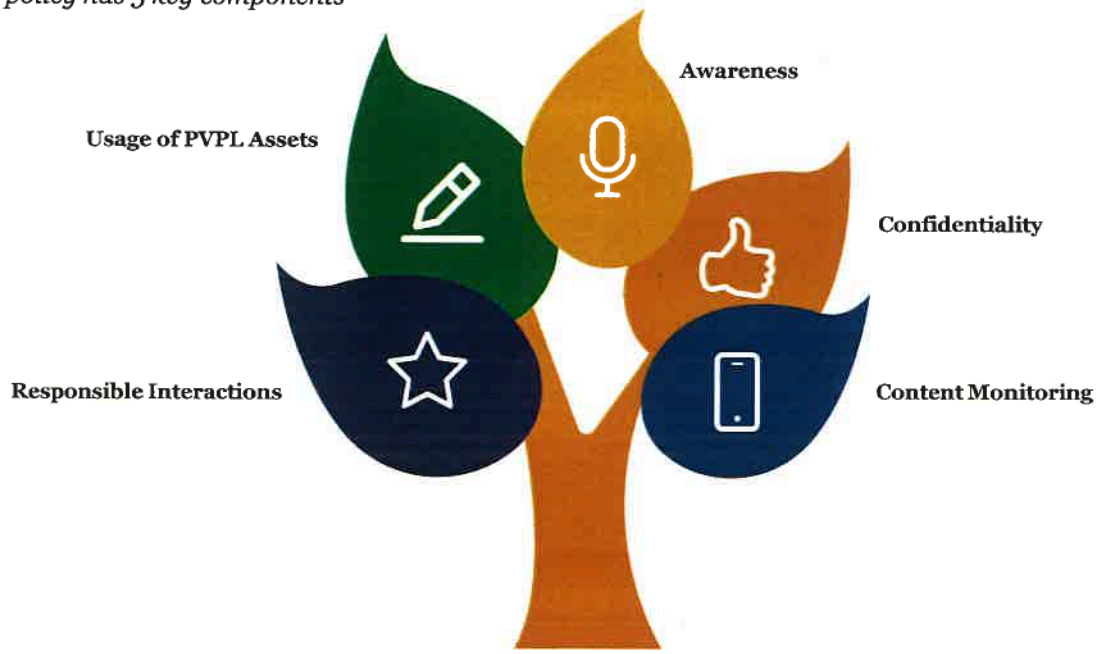

The documents details out the guidelines for PVPL employee while using these digital platform like Social Media, Digital Collaboration tools, E-Commerce platforms and various other digital channels.

Introduction

At Piaggio, we are well aware of how online social computing platforms—such as blogs, wikis, social networks, and all sorts of social media and digital platforms are transforming the way we interact. Online collaboration enables people to share knowledge and ideas regardless of rank, title, experience or location.

These digital platforms provide a great opportunity for business growth as well as brand image of PVPL and that the company intends to leverage on this. While on one hand we will encourage our employees to be digitally savvy, we also need to be aware of our responsibilities while using these digital platforms

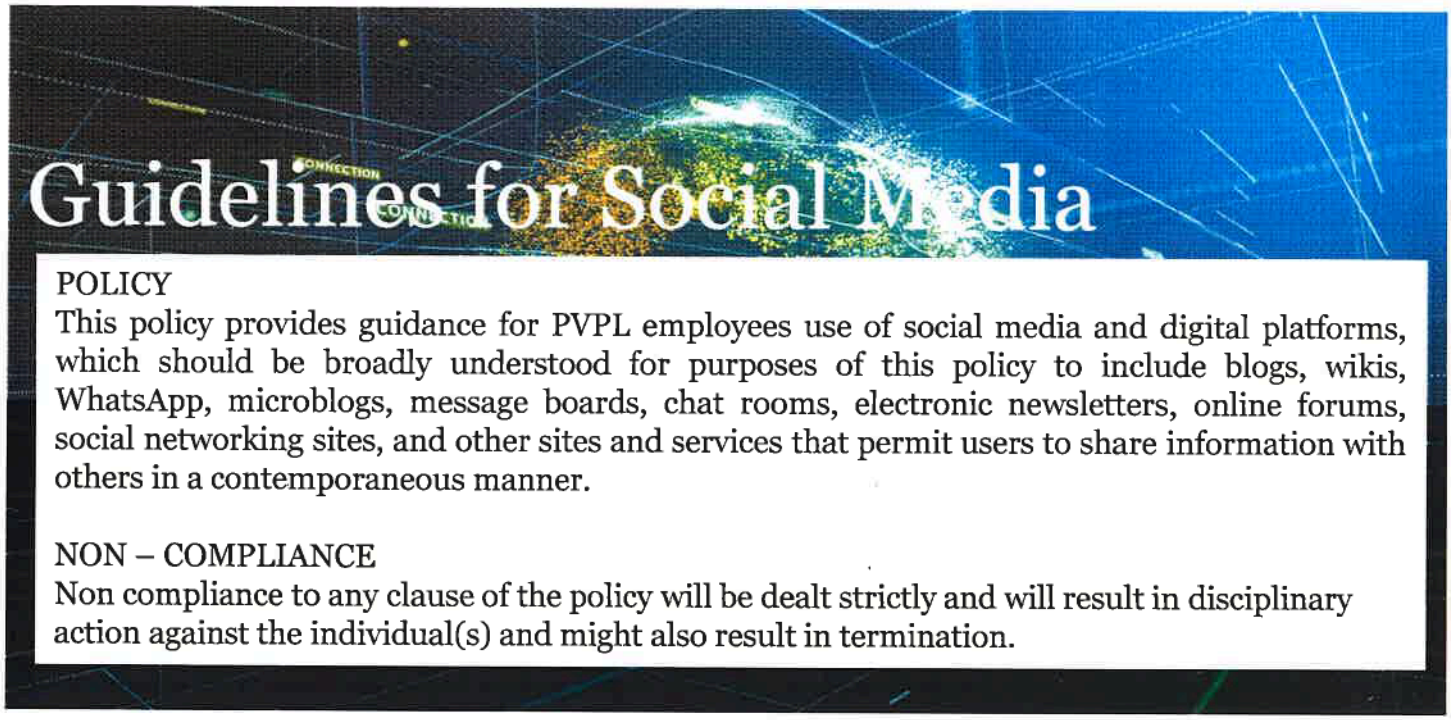

This policy has 5 key components

The subsequent section of this document talks about the PVPL's policy with respect to the above-mentioned components. This policy is a subset of PVPL's Ethics policy and has been developed for all members of PVPL to follow whenever using social media or any digital platform in all its forms where there are references to or a potential impact on PVPL. The policy can also be found in our Apna HR Portal.

All discussions, preceding's and actions will be in line in the event of any breach will be dealt in accordance and in line with the PVPL's Code of Business & Ethics, Part 4: Sub Clause 12: (Policy on Electronic Resource Usage). Employees are request you to make themselves aware of the PVPL's Code of Business & Ethics.

This Policy would be abiding by the prevailing law and will be updated accordingly time to time. You can find the updated version on Apna HR.

Guidelines for Social Media

POLICY

This policy provides guidance for PVPL employees use of social media and digital platforms, which should be broadly understood for purposes of this policy to include blogs, wikis, WhatsApp, microblogs, message boards, chat rooms, electronic newsletters, online forums, social networking sites, and other sites and services that permit users to share information with others in a contemporaneous manner.

NON – COMPLIANCE

Non compliance to any clause of the policy will be dealt strictly and will result in disciplinary action against the individual(s) and might also result in termination.

1. Awareness

Internet is a public space and Internet is Permanent. Anything that is posted remains in the public space for a long period. Even if the posts/ Comments/blogs are deleted, these remains on the internet for very long time. Hence the employee should be extremely careful while posting anything on the social media. Anything that has been posted few years ago can also be used against user, if it violates any code of conduct of the organization or legal boundaries etc. You are personally responsible for your words and actions, no matter where you are, even in the online world. Please remember that when you participate in social media, you are speaking as an individual and not on behalf of the Group. Identify yourself using the first person singular.

PVPL CONFIDENTIAL

1.1 Adherence to PVPL Guidelines

Employees need to know and adhere to the PVPL's Code of Conduct, Employee Handbook, and other company policies along with this social media in reference to PVPL or P&C

1.2 Awareness about PVPL and P&C Reputation

Employees should be aware of the effect their actions may have on their images, as well as PVPL's image. The information that employees post or publish may be public information for a long time. Even after deletion, such information is available with these platforms.

1.3 Personal Vs Official

It is highly recommended that employees keep PVPL related social media accounts separate from personal accounts.

Personal Accounts: The employees should not use PVPL's name, logo, names of senior official or any other company related information for their personal accounts.

Official PVPL Accounts: These account should be used strictly for official purposes under the strict supervision. In case these accounts are managed by external agency, strict provisions should be made in the contract to safeguard company's brand image and reputation.

1.4 Using social media at work

Employees should refrain from using social media while on work time or PVPL assets, unless it is work-related as authorized by your manager or consistent with the Company Equipment Policy. Do not use PVPL email addresses to register on social networks, blogs or other online tools utilized for personal use.

1.5 Committee for Digital Compliance

All Matters related to policy breach will come to Digital Compliance Committee (DCC). DCC will investigate the situation and then report their findings to Apex Committee to take final action on the matter. All such matter can be reported to digital.compliance@piaggio.co.in.

PVPL CONFIDENTIAL

2. Confidentiality

Confidentiality is one of the most important aspect of the social media policy. The employees are expected to strictly adhere to the confidentiality clause. The Employees are also expected to report, if they see a breach. Non-compliance to confidentiality clauses will be dealt strictly and might result in termination

What do we mean by Confidential information in PVPL

Confidential information should mean and include any and all information, documents, data and materials whether written, oral and related to the business, operations, finances, assets and plans of the Company or any investment or merger or acquisition proposed or contemplated by the Company, or any other transaction relating to the Company, including, without limitation, business or technical information relating to existing and new businesses or a proposed transaction, technology, know-how, trade secret, patents, agreements with business partners, market and company-specific data, graphs, drawing, past, current, and planned research and development, current and planned manufacturing, marketing and /or distribution methods and processes, customer lists, price lists and other end-user pricing related information, settlement rates, manufacturing charges, market studies, computer software and programs, database technologies, systems, structures and architectures, plant plans, business plans, financial projections and budgets, manufacturing and sales details, capital spending budgets and plans, current or prospective financing sources irrespective of the form of the communication. The above mentioned information is not limited to PVPL but will also include P&C.

2.1 Confidential Information on social media

Employees are not to publish, post or release any information that is considered confidential (as explained) or not public on any social media platform. If there are still any doubts about what is considered confidential, employees should check with their respective supervisor and their head of departments.

2.2 Confidential Information on internal platforms

Employees are also expected not to publish any confidential information on any internal digital platforms as well unless absolutely necessary. Example of such internal platform are Skype for Business, MS Teams, internal e-commerce platforms etc.

PVPL CONFIDENTIAL

2.3 Confidential Information on internal platforms

When attending e-meetings on digital channels like MS Teams, employees should refrain from recording the meetings without prior approval from the chairperson. Special attention should be taken when CEO or first line are conducting the meeting. Any recording without prior approval from the CEO office or chairperson will be considered as breach and will attract disciplinary action against the individual.

2.4 Using Software/ add-ons for taking meeting notes

When attending e-meetings on digital channels like MS Teams, employees should refrain from using any software, add-ons, plug-ins etc to take the meeting notes without prior approval from the chairperson. Special attention should be taken when CEO or first line are conducting the meeting. Any such instance without prior approval from the CEO office or chairperson will be considered as breach and will attract disciplinary action against the individual.

If you are in doubt, please connect with the local IT team or DCC to seek clarification before hand.

3. Content (THINK BEFORE YOU POST)

This section cover specific guidelines for content posted by employees on their personal account and also on company's social media & digital platforms. Employees should be aware that PVPL may observe content and information made available by employees through social media. Employees should use their best judgment in posting material that is neither inappropriate nor harmful to PVPL or anyone related directly or indirectly to PVPL.

3.1 Prohibited Social Media Contents

Sharing/ posting of illegal, defamatory, derogatory, inflammatory, pornographic, proprietary, harassing, or content that can create a hostile environment is a strict NO. If any person is found indulging in such acts, it would be dealt with highest degree of strictness and might result in immediate termination.

PVPL CONFIDENTIAL

3.2 Copyrights

Employees should get appropriate permission to use a third party's copyrights, copyrighted material, trademarks, service marks or other intellectual property. Plagiarism is strict NO. If you download or copy past any content from the internet, you should always disclose the source of the content.

3.3 Image Posting

Employees should get appropriate permission from respective supervisor/ managers before you refer to or post images of current or former employees, members, vendors or suppliers of PVPL or P&C. Employees should not be aware that any content posted on these public forums remain for very long time and can result in embarrassing situations even in future. The details about content is in the next section.

3.4 Press & Media

Social media networks, blogs and other types of online content sometimes generate press and media attention or legal questions. Employees should refer these inquiries to authorized PVPL spokespersons.

3.5 Anonymous Posting on Public Site

Anonymous posting and writing reviews negative reviews about the PVPL, P&C or any employee is discouraged in PVPL. Any postings which hurts Piaggio's brand will attract action.

3.6 WhatsApp

It has been observed that many employees use WhatsApp as effective medium of communication. If you are creating a WhatsApp Group for official purposes, please use it only for official purposes. The Admin of the group would be held responsible for activities on WhatsApp

- If any Employee leaves the organization, It is Admin's responsibility to remove him/her from the official WhatsApp Group.
- The Members should not send forwards statements, photographs, video or audio that reasonably could be viewed as malicious, obscene, threatening or intimidating, harassment or bullying.
- Members should refrains themselves from posting comments on official WhatsApp groups which might hurt religious & political sentiments of any other PVPL employees or stakeholder.

3.7 Complaints on Social Media

PVPL prohibits posting complaints or criticism, using statements, photographs, video or audio that reasonably could be viewed as malicious, obscene, threatening or intimidating, that disparage customers, members, associates or suppliers, or that might constitute harassment or bullying. Please use official channels in such situations.

PVPL CONFIDENTIAL

3.8 Stay on Topic

While using the PVPL's official social media accounts and digital platforms, the employee should post contents relevant to PVPL community. Official account should not be used to post any content which doesn't not relate to any PVPL Eco system.

4. Responsible Interactions

Please be aware that you are a representative of PVPL Brand in public. While you speak for yourself on these digital platforms, but your actions reflect those of Piaggio Company for many stakeholders. People often make judgments about an entire company's values based on their opinion of the personnel they interact with, so it's critical even personal employees' accounts reflect integrity and respect. You should be employees to be "polite and courteous", even at the time disagreement.

4.1 Personal Opinions

Express only your personal opinions. Never represent yourself as a spokesperson for PVPL. If PVPL is a subject of the content you are creating, be clear and open about the fact that you are an associate and make it clear that your views do not represent those of PVPL, fellow employees, members, customers, suppliers or people working on behalf of PVPL If you do publish a blog or post online related to the work you do or subjects associated with PVPL, make it clear that you are not speaking on behalf of PVPL. It is best to include a disclaimer such as "The postings on this site are my own and do not necessarily reflect the views of PVPL"

4.2 After hour online activities

Subject to applicable law, after-hours online activity that violates the Company's Code of Conduct or any other company policy may subject an employee to disciplinary action or termination. If employees publish content after-hours that involves work or subjects associated with PVPL, a disclaimer should be used, such as this: "The postings on this site are my own and may not represent PVPL's positions, strategies or opinions."

PVPL CONFIDENTIAL

4.3 Be respectful

Always be fair and courteous to fellow employees, customers, dealers, suppliers or people who work on behalf of them.

4.4 Be honest and accurate

Make sure you are always honest and accurate when posting information or news, and if you make a mistake, correct it quickly. Be open about any previous posts you have altered. Remember that the Internet archives almost everything; therefore, even deleted postings can be searched.

4.5 Rumours & False information

Never post any information or rumours that you know to be false about any PVPL Stakeholders, fellow associates, members, customers, suppliers, people working on behalf of PVPL or competitors.

4.6 Personal Blogs

Do not create a link from your blog, website or other social networking site to a PVPL website without identifying yourself as a PVPL employee.

4.7 Whistle blowing

It is employees responsibilities to report to the Digital Compliance Committee if they come across any instance which violates PVPL's social media policy. The employees are expected to write to digital.compliance@piaggio.co.in. This Whistle Blowing process will be governed as per PVPL's Whistle Blowing policy mentioned in PVPL's code of conduct.

4.8 Retaliation is prohibited

Any associate who retaliates against another associate for reporting a possible deviation from this policy or for cooperating in an investigation will be subject to disciplinary action, up to and including termination.

5. Usage of PVPL Assets

PVPL CONFIDENTIAL

5.1 Usage during work hours

Social media use shouldn't interfere with employee's responsibilities at PVPL. If these platforms are being used during work hours, the employee and the manager needs to ensure that these are being used strictly for official purposes.

5.2 IT Assets

PVPL's Laptops, desktops and Company provided mobile phones are to be used for business purposes only. When using PVPL's computer systems, use of social media for business purposes is allowed (ex: Facebook, Twitter, PVPL blogs and LinkedIn), but personal use of social media networks or personal blogging of online content is discouraged and could result in disciplinary action.

5.3 Official Emails

Please do not use your official email id to subscribe to any message boards, newsgroups, public websites and other internet services. Such platforms generate excessive junk emails puts tremendous burden on the IT Infrastructure

5.4 Data Protection

DO NOT send company data/ information or any other confidential information (as explain in section 3 of this policy document) to your cloud accounts like google drive/ dropbox or any such digital online storage platform.

All the users have been allocated a cloud storage. Please store a copy of important business data in "One Drive" for easy access from anywhere and regular data backup. If you need assistance, contact local IT helpdesk for support. In the event of hardware failure, this will be your back data repository.

5.5 Information Security

Please do not download any unknown files from social media or any digital platforms, including files received as e-mail attachments, onto your PC without first checking them for viruses, using the Company approved software. Please do not download software onto your office PC without approval of your manager and IT. This includes software, add-ons and sharewares available for free on the Internet.

PVPL CONFIDENTIAL

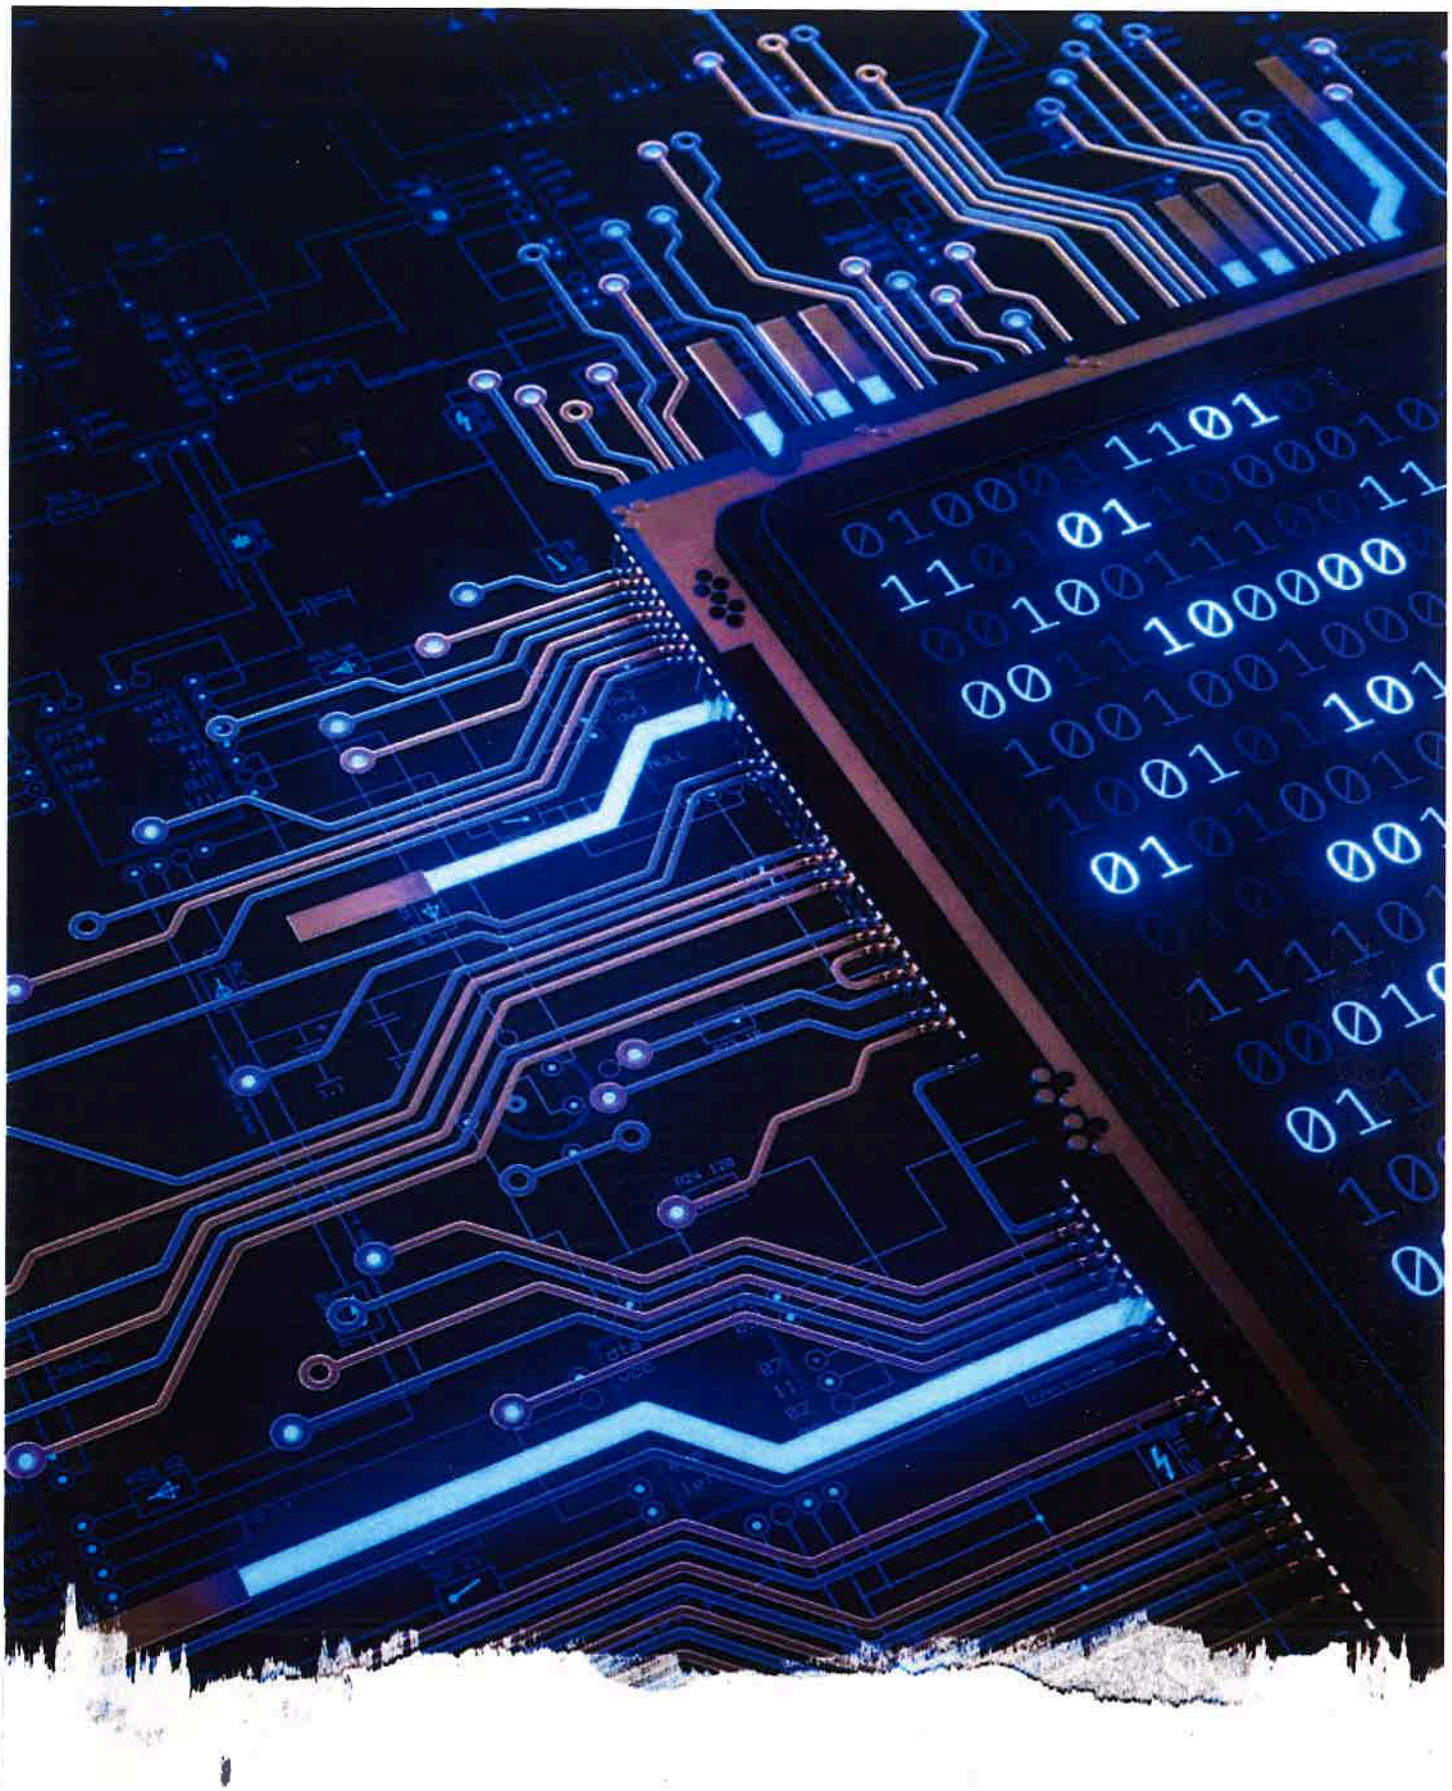

5.6 Password Management

Username and password management should be responsibility of HOD and respective manager. The password should not be easy and should comply with existing PVPL's password policy. It is recommended that employees should change the password periodically.

5.7 Escalations

In the event of any escalation/ breach, employees should reach out to the local IT support immediately and report the incident. IT Team will troubleshoot the issue and discuss the next course of action accordingly.

This Policy would be abiding by the prevailing law and will be updated accordingly time to time.

This is a PVPL Confidential document and should be used strictly for internal consumption. Please do not broadcast this document unless permission has been obtained from the relevant authorities. Should you need any clarification, please reach out to the Digital Compliance Committee.